

Accessibility Statement

Invstr is committed to ensuring everyone can experience its service, including those with disabilities. Our app and website are designed with accessibility in mind.

If you notice any content, feature or functionality that you think is not fully accessible to people with disabilities, or would like to suggest any improvements, then please let us know by emailing us at info@invstr.com adding “Disabled Access” in the subject line. Please be assured that we will take every comment into consideration and will endeavour to implement suggestions wherever possible.
