

COMPETITIONS

Invstr runs multiple games and league tables, including invitation-only and private competitions in conjunction with third-party associates, such as but not limited to Academy Challenge, Fantasy Finance, Fantasy League Competition, Raw, Supreme or Xtreme League, Invstr Challenge, $1Million Giveaway (“Competitions”), each of which involves an element of skill, judgement or knowledge, consecutively or simultaneously. Disclosures for some of these are included below. We also enable Invstr users to create their own private leagues, and to join other participants’ private leagues at their own risk. Employees of Invstr or their family members or anyone else connected in any way with a Competition or helping to set up a Competition may, at our discretion, enter a Competition. However, they are explicitly excluded from winning prizes.

Although Invstr in-app purchases may be made to boost certain Competition features that may help a competitor’s chances, there is no entry fee and no purchase necessary to enter and win a Competition.

To be eligible to win a Competition, you must be registered.

Invstr may impose a particular age limit in relation to any of the Competitions, otherwise they are open to all persons at the date of their entry. However, Invstr reserves the right to require that the parent or guardian of any person aged 18 or less confirms in writing that they agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of a Competition and will accept any prize on behalf of an under-18 prize winner.

Invstr reserves the right to cancel or amend a Competition. Any changes to a Competition will be notified to entrants as soon as possible by Invstr.

When given, prizes are not transferable. Prizes are subject to availability and Invstr, or its associates, reserve the right to refuse any prize without giving notice. One or more winners will be chosen based on the competition rules for each event.

Winners will be notified by email after the closing date of a Competition. If the winners cannot be contacted or do not claim the prize within 30 days of notification, Invstr reserves the right to withdraw the prize from that winner and pick an alternative winner. Competition prizes will be awarded to the winners, at the discretion of Invstr, or its associates.

Invstr may at its sole discretion disqualify any entrant from any Competition who fails to meet the eligibility criteria or whom Invstr suspects of foul play. This includes taking advantage of bugs in the Invstr services, or multiple sign-ups to the Invstr apps. In the event that any entrant is disqualified from the Competition, Invstr may decide whether a replacement should be selected. In this event, any further entrant will be selected on the same criteria as the original entrant and will be subject to these rules. It will be Invstr’s, or its associates, sole decision as to whether any eligibility requirement has or has not been met and we may require evidence or confirmation from entrants before awarding prizes. Invstr’s decision in respect of all matters to do with the Competition will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Winners agree to the use of their name and image in any publicity material. Any personal data relating to the winner or any other entrants will be used solely in accordance with current UK data protection legislation and will not be disclosed to a third party without the entrant’s prior consent.

Entry into the Competition will be deemed as an acceptance of the rules.

Competitions and promotions are in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by, or associated with, Apple, Google, Facebook, Sapchat, Twitter or any other Social Network. Entrants are providing their information to Invstr and not to any other party. The information provided will be used in conjunction with the Invstr Privacy Policy.

Winners will be chosen based on the Competition rules for each event. Rules on a Competition by Competition basis are available either on the Invstr website or through the App.
